

1. Although the Romans had increased their amount of troops, they still had trouble beating their enemies. What battle, located near lake Tarracina, a lesser known battle of the Samnite war, nearly costed Rullianus the war?

Latulae

2. While marching through the Ciminian mountains, what general came upon the Etruscans in 310 BC at the first battle of lake Vadimo

Rullianus

3. What Spartan king gave the Tarentines help during the first Samnite War, thus causing the Samnites to make a peace treaty in 341?

Archidamus

4. Thinking of himself as a reincarnation of Alexander the Great, what king bought 20 war elephants from India, and invaded Rome, but was defeated and was finally killed when a women dropped a roof tile on his head?

Pyrrhus

5. Although they accomplished very little, Alexander of Epirus, Archidamas, Cleonymus, and Agathocles of Syracuse all came to the aid of what city, which was sacked in 272 BC

Tarentum

6. What man, as a child educated in Egypt, was supported by Ptolemy II because he had married his daughter, and fought against Rome with 25k mercenaries?

Pyrrhus

7. Although this city had agreed with Rome that they would not send ships into the gulf of Ontranto, what city in 282 BC, after sinking Roman ships looking to help the city of Thurii, instigated the Pyrrhic war?

Tarentum

8. Described as a misfit in his own world, what enemy general was the first to use elephants against Rome?

Pyrrhus

9. After Pyrrhus was beaten at both Asculum and Heraclea, suffering from threats on multiple fronts, he tried to make a peace treaty with Rome. Rome was going to accept the terms of this treaty, however, this Carthaginian man came to Rome promised to give them any resources they would need to finish the war, name this man.

Mago

10. Rome would have accepted the Peace treaty with Pyrrhus, had this man not spoken up against Pyrrhus name this man.

Appius Claudius Pulcher

11. Although he never lost a land battle Whose Italian campaign was a failure because he kept losing so many troops in his victories

Pyrrhus

12. If five horsemen had not broken out of the Anio and Tiber river valleys where they were trapped, Rome probably would have been defeated at this battle, where Minucius was trapped by the Aequi.

Algidus

13. At what Small stream about eleven miles from Rome, did the Gauls sack Rome in 390 A.D?

Allia River

15. twelve feet thick, twenty-four feet high, made out of tufa, and the first defensive wall built around Rome are all ways of describing what structure built under Servius Tullius?

Servian wall

16. After what war did the Roman soldiers, after getting upset that they were fighting so far from home, decide to mutiny their commanders?

Samnite war

17. While the Romans were attempting to march from Campania across the Apennines to Apulia, they were trapped at what location in Apulia in 321 BC.

Caudine Forks

18. Bibant, quoniam esse (long mark on e) nolunt was famously said at this battle, after which Aulus Calatinus was made dictator, a naval disaster where the Romans lost ninety-three out of one-hundred and twenty Roman ships in the 1st Punic War.

Drepana

19. Although Epirus did nothing to harm the Romans, after what war, in order to set in example, did the Romans rape, plunder and destroy the city of Epirus, following Aemilius Paullus' orders

20. In 78 BC in the city of Puteoli, what man died, causing many having been exiled by him to return, and the revolt of Aemilius Lepidus.

Sulla