- Convention recap
 - Everyone said they had one good thing and one bad thing
 - Testing better organized
 - Several issues are brought up about
 - We had photography issues
 - People need to learn to mount their photos next year
 - It might be good to have more board games next year besides chess
 - Card games
 - Perhaps introduce spikeball for ludi
 - Ammendment meeting will be organized better next year
 - Many agreed that we should continue to do that's entertainment
 - Many thought that this state convention was very good and ran really smooth
 - "Everything flowed beautifully"
 - Someone said the kahoot was really good (I'm touched)
- Nationals
 - Nationals registration opens at 5 PM on March 1st
 - Go onto NJCL website, click on convention, and they walk through the signing up process
 - Put your info in
 - We're working out tranpsortion
 - We're flying on Southwest
 - Do we need preconvention housing? For now it is not necessary, but we may need to sign up later;
- Second vp report
 - We raised $1250 supplying water to a family and buying them a cow
 - 100 items were given to the Milwaukee Rescue Mission
- Miscellaneous
 - Instead of using facebook we will use the remind app and the email system
 - Ideally all local boards could have their own email address
 - Regarding state convention one of the reasons was so smooth was due to the WSCL; THANK YOU WSCL

- To seniors, please join the WSCL!
 - What are we doing for national classics week?
 - We are working on it - Caleb
- Next Meeting
 - Update the board meeting will be online, with the date to be determined
